REIMAGINING CAPITAL

An International Learning Series exploring the intersection between spirituality, science, culture business, leadership and governance

The SCMLi learning series showcases the work of renowned scholars and expert practitioners from across the world. During each session you will hear from and interact with the presenter, dig deeper with a panel, join a small group discussion, and enjoy leading edge thinking and practice in the application of Spiritual Capital. Each session is free to join, and we welcome proposals for presentations.
